CASE NO.: 3:12-CV-02099-JST STIPULATION RE TAKING DEPOSITIONS OUTSIDE OF CLOSE OF EXPERT DISCOVERY

In light of the schedule of the witnesses, Plaintiff and Counterclaim Defendant ASUS Computer International ("ACI") and Counterclaim Defendant ASUSTeK Computer Inc. ("ASUSTeK") (collectively "ASUS"), and Defendant and Counterclaim Plaintiff Round Rock Research, LLC ("RRR"), have agreed to take certain depositions relating to expert discovery on or about the following dates:

WitnessDateKevin Gibb, TechInsightsFebruary 11, 2014David YurkerwichFebruary 14, 2014Keith UgoneFebruary 18, 2014

Expert discovery is currently scheduled to close on February 7, 2014. (D.I. 154.) Therefore, the above depositions will occur after the deadline for expert discovery.

Nevertheless, RRR and ASUS have agreed that these deposition(s) may be taken out of time and that the parties will not object to such depositions solely on the basis that such deposition(s) are scheduled to take place after the close of expert discovery.

In addition, the parties agree that these depositions will be treated as though they were taken within the original expert discovery period. Specifically, the parties will not object to the following on the basis that such requests are untimely as outside the expert discovery period: (1) a request by the deposing party for documents and other discoverable information that are properly within the scope of expert discovery, the existence and non-production of which is first discovered during these depositions; and (2) to the extent an impasse is reached, any motion brought by the deposing party to compel such materials identified in (1), where the motion is brought no more than 7 days after the deposition in which the existence and non-production of the materials is first discovered.
